

Democrats Tough as Junkyard Dogs

Virginia Senator Steve Martin surrendered without taking a vote on the House Bill 1 concerning personhood. He said he didn't have the votes.

President Obama knew his Obamacare would eventually come before the Supreme Court. He didn't know he would have the votes- who would have expected Chief Justice Roberts to support him? But he went ahead and was successful.

How did Martin know that Senator Harry Blevins would vote at the last minute or that lighting might strike and Senators Richard Saslaw and Janet Howell would change their votes? They were not given the chance because Martin apparently did not want it to happen.

But this is the difference between the Democrats and Republicans.

The Democrats are determined, tough as junk yard dogs. They know what they want and they don't give up!

The Republicans are like golden retrievers- "Just love me, love me, sure come on in and rob the house, but please don't take my dog biscuits".

Legal Abortion has run unabated for 40 years. Girls and women can look forward to 4 more years of uninterrupted 'choice' with the Democrats in charge. There have been fifty to fifty-five million dead babies and counting! The blood of these babies must be calling out to God. The only thing we can be sure of- it won't be a world-wide flood.
