

THE Masters PLAN

...a New Beginning

The richest story of the ages begins again this Easter at the Carpenter Center. New scenes from the walk of Jesus Christ are brought to life by over 150 cast members in a spectacular production. Full of color and authentically portrayed, this presentation will enrich your family's celebration of Easter.

Excitement builds as new scenes from the ministry of Jesus are richly woven in story and song for your entire family.

Backed by a twenty-piece orchestra, the musical score fills the heart and echoes in the memory long after the curtain falls. Lively choreography and authentic costumes light the soul with joy. Breath-taking scenes transport the audience to the time of Jesus, capturing the imagination and lifting the spirit.

The Master's Plan... a New Beginning will be performed at the Carpenter Center in Richmond, Virginia, on April 12-15, 1990. Tickets may be purchased on the attached form or by calling 740-7042.
